

44th Annual Talent Night

May 10 | 7PM
Neffsville Mennonite Church

This is a free event and is open to the public to attend and enjoy the talents of Friendship Community Individuals! There will also be a table dedicated to the Friendship Heart Gallery & Studio filled with beautiful creations made by the Heart Artists for sale.

A long-standing tradition within Friendship Community is its annual Talent Night. This event has a reputation for being a night of entertainment, encouragement and celebration. Individuals supported by Friendship Community are blessed to be able to share their talents and those who attend are blessed by offering their support! Each program offers talents including instrumentalists, dances, readings, comedy routines and many more wonderful presentations.
